Roughly 1/4 of all collegiate presidents are women in the U.S.

Women currently hold only 17% of Congressional and Senate seats.

Until 38 years ago, a woman could be fired for being pregnant.

Until 48 years ago, women couldn’t apply for credit.

An estimated 4 million women and girls are bought and sold world-wide each year, either into marriage, prostitution, or slavery.

Feminism /ˈfeməˌnizəm/
noun
1. The advocacy of women’s rights on the grounds of political, social, and economic equality of men
2. The belief that men and women should have equal rights and opportunities

I can promise you that women working together—linked, informed, and educated—can bring peace and prosperity to this forsaken planet.
