For each AABI-accredited aviation program, institutions MUST accurately publish on the program’s public website, a report of student achievement data including the following information, updated annually:

The objectives of the Aviation Management and Flight Operations degree programs:
- Professionalism, career planning, and certification
- Aircraft design, performance, operating characteristics, and maintenance
- Aviation safety and human factors
- National and international aviation law, regulations, and labor issues
- Airports, airspace, and air traffic control
- Meteorology and environmental issues

Additional objective for Flight Operations: Pilot certification and aircraft operation

Detailed grading rubrics for each of these objectives are found on our website at https://www.westminstercollege.edu/about/academic-schools/undergraduate-schools/bill-and-vieve-gore-school-of-business/departments/aviation-department/accreditation

Program assessment measures employed
- Course evaluations
- Graduate, alumni, student, and employer surveys
- Classroom observations
- Comprehensive academic portfolio assessments in the capstone class
- Program assessment plans
- Safety Management System
- Aviation Advisory Board input and program reviews
- Internal self-reviews using the AABI criteria manual
- Formal AABI accreditation reviews every five years

Graduation rates-Flight Operations (2013 start term)
Four-year graduation rate: 32%
Five-year graduation rate: 56%
Six-year graduation rate: 56%
Retention rate (returning sophomores 2014): 78%

Graduation rates-Aviation Management (2013 start term)
Four-year graduation rate: 33%
Five-year graduation rate: 50%
Six-year graduation rate: 50%

Retention rate (returning sophomores 2014): 83%

Rates and types of employment of graduates (previous five years)

Flight Operations graduates:
- 85% are employed with airlines or other aviation companies
- 7% are serving in the military
- 3% are employed with companies or organizations outside of aviation
- 4% unknown
- 1% are attending graduate school

Aviation Management graduates:
- 55% are employed with airlines or other aviation companies
- 20% are serving in the military
- 10% are employed with companies or organizations outside of aviation
- 5% unknown
- 10% are attending graduate school