Aviation Management Learning Goals:
Aviation Management students must demonstrate skills and knowledge relative to each of the following areas:
- Attributes of an aviation professional, career planning and certification.
- Aircraft design, performance, operating characteristics and maintenance.
- Aviation safety and human factors.
- National and international aviation law, regulations and labor issues.
- Airports, airspace, and air traffic control.
- Meteorology and environmental issues.

Aviation Flight Operations Learning Goals:
Aviation Flight Operations students must demonstrate skills and knowledge relative to each of the following areas:
- Attributes of an aviation professional, career planning and certification.
- Aircraft design, performance, operating characteristics and maintenance.
- Aviation safety and human factors.
- National and international aviation law, regulations and labor issues.
- Airports, airspace, and air traffic control.
- Meteorology and environmental issues.
- Pilot certificates and aircraft operation.