Economics (B.S.) Learning Goals:
- Interpret and analyze quantitative data.
- Analyze economic, social and business problems from the economic point of view.
- Demonstrate appreciation of the historical, cultural and institutional foundations of the economy.
- Demonstrate understanding of the policy implication of economic theories.
- Demonstrate appreciation for how economics integrates with business.

---

Economics (B.A.) Learning Goals:
- Interpret and analyze quantitative data.
- Analyze economic, social, and business problems from the economic point of view, which means weighing the costs and benefits.
- Demonstrate an appreciation for the historical, cultural, and institutional foundations of the economy.
- Demonstrate understanding of the policy implications of economic theories.
- Demonstrate an appreciation of how the social sciences, history, and philosophy contribute to an understanding of economics.

---

Economics (B.A.), Pre-Law Concentration Learning Goals:
- Apply economic reasoning to legal issues.
- Communicate effectively.
- Demonstrate an appreciation of the historical, cultural, and institutional foundations of the economy.
- Demonstrate understanding of the policy implications of economic theories.
- Demonstrate appreciation of the integration of economic concepts with the law.