Since our first class on September 1st, you have been involved in discussion, reading, reflection, and instruction regarding classroom management. In a two to three page, double-spaced, typewritten paper, list the ten beliefs you now hold about classroom management. Include a rationale for your choices. You may wish to refer to reading you have done or information gathered from class. Make your points in an articulate manner and proofread carefully. Remember to include an introductory paragraph as well as a conclusion.

Rubric for grading:
An “A” paper will meet all requirements and will include:
- An introductory and concluding paragraph
- Clearly presented information (articulate, well-explained)
- Informed rationales
- Strong evidence of learning
- No grammatical or mechanical errors

A “B” paper will meet all requirements:
- An introductory and concluding paragraph
- Clearly presented information
- Informed rationales
- Evidence of learning
- One – four grammatical or mechanical errors

A “C” paper will meet all requirements and will include:
- Scanty information presented unclearly
- Little evidence of learning
- Many grammatical or mechanical errors

Your paper is due October 20th at the beginning of class.
