Today is the last day to register to vote in Utah for the 2012 elections.

Both online and in-person registrations are open today.

Register now at vote.utah.gov, or head down to the Salt Lake County Clerk’s office at 2100 S. and State Street by 5 PM to register in person.

Registration takes about 5 minutes—remember to bring ID like a driver’s license.

US citizens have the right and responsibility to vote, so don't miss your opportunity to do so!
